Other experience, qualifications, comments:

Meredith Glemboski is a music educator, stylist, and barbershopper who has a passion for helping quartets and choruses establish their ensemble identity through costuming, make-up, branding, and music selection.

She currently teaches voice and piano through her private studio on Long Island, NY. She also sells make-up as a private distributor through SeneGence. Meredith was the tenor of Rosegold Four Quartet -Sweet Adelines International Region 15 2024 2nd Place Medalists & International Wildcard Recipient and currently the lead of Retro Quartet - Barbershop Harmony Society Mid-Atlantic District Northern Division 2023 2nd Place Medalists. She has served as tenor section leader and costume chair of the Greater Nassau Chorus of Region 15 Sweet Adelines - 2024 11th place international mic-testing chorus of Sweet Adelines International. She is also the musical director of the Long Island Sound Chorus of the Mid-Atlantic District BHS. She was also the former director of the Twin Shores Chorus of the BHS.

Meredith holds a bachelors degree in Vocal Music Education from Longwood University in Virginia and a Masters Degree in General and Special Education from Touro College in New York City. She and her husband, Jeff Glemboski, are raising three young children in Merrick, NY.

I am very passionate about helping other become more confident singers, performers, and barbershoppers in both quartet and chorus setting. I have worked at Harmony College East as youth in harmony faculty, coach, and director of the youth chorus. I have also served on the district Director Development Team and and currently serving as the Youth-in-Harmony Coordinator. I would be honored to be part of the district coaching team. Thank you for your time and consideration.
